

Christopher D. Torres, CPM
Director of Public Works, City of Harlingen, Texas

Mr. Torres has over eighteen years of experience in the Public Works sector. He holds a bachelor's in public administration from the Texas University of Pan American, a Certification in Public Management from Texas State University in conjunction with the Texas University of Pan American and a Certification in Geographical Interface Systems from South Texas College. Mr. Torres is a 2019 past President of the local branch with the Texas Public Works Association with over 2,100 plus members. In addition, Mr. Torres is collaborating in two National Committees with the American Public Works Association, the Emergency Management and the Solid Waste Committees. Mr. Torres is also the Data Base Manager for the Texas Public Works Emergency Response Council.