Statement on Possible Arrival of Migrant Caravan to the McAllen Bridge System

“Right now, closing the bridge would be the absolutely last resort. CBP does not believe that will be necessary, however, they do have a contingency plan if that occurs. Obviously, for the City of McAllen it is of monumental importance that the bridges remain open for commercial traffic and activity; however, CBP is our partner and we will work with them on this contingency.” -McAllen City Manager Roel “Roy” Rodriguez, P.E.
