Introduction

The McAllen Police Department participates in the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program. Uniform Crime Reporting is part of a nationwide, cooperative statistical effort administered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

HISTORY OF UCR

In the 1920's, the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) recognized the potential value in tracking national crime statistics. The committee on Uniform Crime Records of the IACP developed and initiated this voluntary national data collection effort in 1930. Also, in 1930 the IACP was instrumental in gaining congressional approval which authorized the FBI to serve as the national clearinghouse for statistical information on crime. In June 1966, the National Sheriff's Association (NSA) established a Committee on Uniform Crime Reporting to serve in an advisory capacity and to encourage sheriffs throughout the country to fully participate in the program. Since 1930, through the UCR program, the FBI has collected and compiled data to use in law enforcement administration, operation, management, and to indicate fluctuations in the level of crime in America. ¹

To best depict total crime and to provide the most meaningful data to police administrators, the UCR Program collects data on known offenses and persons arrested by law enforcement agencies. The UCR Program does not record the findings of a court, coroner, jury, or the decision of a prosecutor.

UCR collects reports of seven index crimes. The crimes in this group are all serious, either by their nature or because of the frequency with which they occur. These seven index crimes are:

- ❖ Murder
- ❖ Forcible rape
- ❖ Robbery
- ❖ Aggravated Assault
- ❖ Burglary
- ❖ Larceny (theft)
- ❖ Motor Vehicle Theft

- Crime rates are generally expressed in the number of crimes per 100,000 residents.

VIOLENT CRIMES

- Involve the element of personal confrontation between the perpetrator and the victim.
- This category is comprised of Homicide, Rape, Robbery, and Aggravated Assault.

PROPERTY CRIMES

- Involve only the taking of money or property.

UCR Index Crime Analysis

Index Crime Summary:

Murder and Non-Negligent Manslaughter

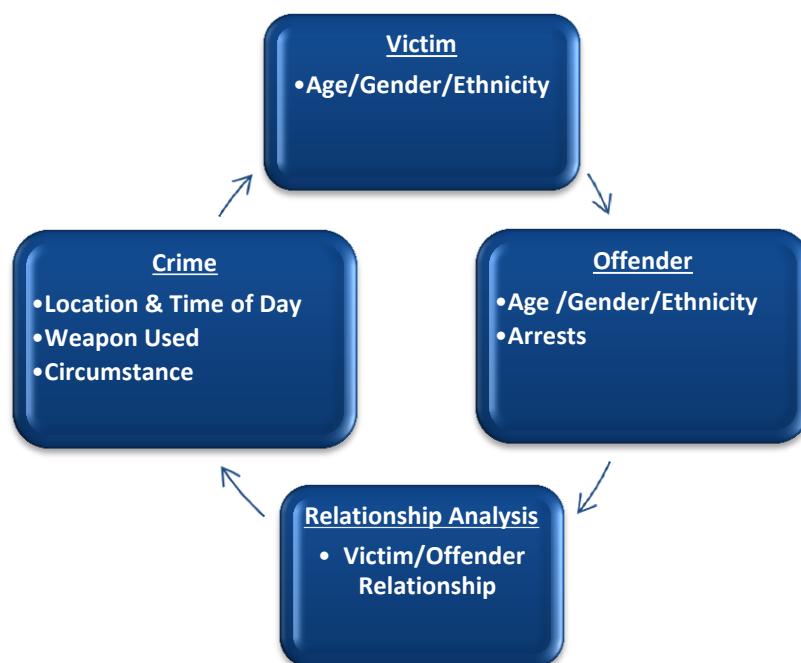

Murder - Methodology

Murder and Non-Negligent Manslaughter as defined in UCR is “the willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.” [Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook: Texas Department of Public Safety – Crime Records; 2014].

This offense category includes any death due to a fight, argument, quarrel, assault, or the commission of a crime. Attempted murder and assaults with the intent to kill are not counted as murder, but are included in UCR as an aggravated assault.

Suicides, accidental deaths, and justifiable homicides are also excluded from the murder classification.

The classification of this offense as well as for all Index Crimes is based solely on police investigation and not upon determinations by courts, medical examiners, coroners, juries, or other judicial bodies.

The McAllen Police Department participates in the UCR program by providing additional information so that an in-depth analysis of murder is attainable. The Supplementary Homicide Report collects additional specific details such as: the age, sex, race, and ethnic origin of both victims and offenders. The detailed data also includes the murder weapon used and the circumstance of the offense.

RAPE

Rape - Methodology

Rape, as defined in the Uniform Crime Reporting Program, is “penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any part of the body or object, or oral penetration by sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim”. [Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook: Texas Department of Public Safety – Crime Records; 2014]

In 2013, the FBI UCR Program began collecting rape data under a revised definition. This definition includes either male or female victims or offenders. This definition also includes instances in which the victim is incapable of giving consent. Attempts to commit Rape are also scored under the new definition. Rapes that occurred prior to 2013 but are reported after 2013 should be consistent with the new definition. Statutory rape and incest are excluded from this category. [UCR Program: Summary Reporting System, 2013]

Location of Crime

- During 2018, 82% of rapes occurred in a residence/apartment type location. [See Figure: 18]
- The 'Hotel/Motel' category represented 5% of rapes reported.

Rape - Victimology

- Rape differs from other violent crimes because in many cases the victims are hesitant to report the offense to the police. The rigors of court procedures, embarrassment, and fear of any accompanying stigma exert a deterrent effect upon the victim's willingness to contact the police. As attitudes towards the reporting of rape change, trends in the number of reported offenses can be expected to change accordingly.
- Data compiled during 2018 indicates that there were 39 victims of rape.

The victim, who usually is the owner or person having custody of the property, is directly confronted by the perpetrator and is threatened with force or is put in fear that force will be used. The Uniform Crime Reporting Program’s definition of structure includes, but is not limited to, an apartment, barn, cabin, church, condominium, dwelling house, factory, garage, house trailer, office, school, railroad car and other buildings.

Additionally, any house trailer or other mobile unit that is permanently fixed as an office, residence, or storehouse is considered a structure. The Texas Family Code defines ‘Family Violence’ as an act by a member of a family or household against another member that is intended to result in physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or a threat that reasonably places the member in fear of imminent physical harm.

The law excludes the reasonable discipline of a child and defines abuse as physical injury that results in substantial harm or genuine threat; sexual contact, intercourse, or conduct; or compelling or encouraging the child to engage in sexual conduct.

- By definition and for the purpose of family violence reports, “family” includes individuals related by consanguinity (blood) or affinity, marriage or former marriage, biological parents of the same child, foster children, foster parents, and member or former members of the same household (including roommates). Senate Bill 68 of the 77th Legislature amended the Family Code to include “Dating Violence”. The “Dating Relationship” means a relationship between individuals who have or have had a continuing relationship of romantic or intimate nature. [Summary Reporting System (SRS) User Manual: U.S. Department of Justice – Federal Bureau of Investigation; 2013]
